WAR ON U.S.A.
FORESEEN BY
JAP PREMIERMILITARISTS BRING ABOUT DOWNFALL
OF KONOYE

BY WILLIAM T. PEACOCK

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—Former Ambassador Joseph C. Grew testified today that Prince Fumimaro Kono, told him September 6, 1941, that the Japanese military would take over his country unless he could have a personal "peace" meeting with President Roosevelt.

Grew told a Senate-House committee that Kono, in dire fear of the military extremists, met him secretly at a friend's home to urge that such a meeting be arranged.

Official license plates were removed from their automobiles to preserve the secrecy of their three-hour rendezvous, he said.

The late president decided against the meeting although Grew said he believed failure to hold the conference would result in Kono's downfall and "the formation of a military dictatorship lacking either the disposition or temperament to avoid colliding head-on with the United States."

In October came Kono's downfall and the elevation of Tojo to the premiership, and on December 7, war.

The gray-haired former envoy told the committee investigating the Pearl Harbor attack that he believed Kono advanced his proposal in good faith.

Grew told also of an exchange of letters he had with Mr. Roosevelt in the previous winter when, he said, they agreed that divergent American and Japanese policies were "bound eventually" to bring a "head on clash with Japan."

Under questioning from Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), Grew said he interpreted the president's letter of January 21, 1941, as supporting the ambassador's view that the United States must be prepared to go "all the way" in support of its diplomatic representations to Japan.

Denies "Touching Button"
The former U. S. ambassador to Tokyo told a Senate-House committee, however, that what he had in mind was an economic conflict and not necessarily a "military clash."

Grew read to the committee, which is investigating the Pearl Harbor attack, a letter he said he wrote to the president on December 14, 1940, expressing his fear of a clash.

Three months earlier, Grew had dispatched to Washington what he termed his "green light message" which said, in effect, that the time had come to apply economic sanctions against the Japanese.

Ferguson remarked that it recommended a "get tough" policy but that little was done until the following summer.

Rome, Nov. 27 (AP)—Crown Prince Umberto, lieutenant general of the realm, invited leaders of the six main parties to new conferences this afternoon on the Italian political crisis, still unresolved after the leftists rejected 85-year-old Vittorio Emanuele Orlando as premier.

Political leaders met this morning without result.

NEW JOB FOR GENERAL—"Will you go, General Marshall?" President Truman asked the five-star general by telephone.

"I will, Mr. President," was the reply, and General of the Army George C. Marshall thus became special U. S. envoy to strife-torn China after the ambassador, Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, had started Washington with his resignation and scathing denunciation of American diplomacy in China.

Gen. Marshall, who has retired as army chief of staff, is shown above receiving from President Truman an oak leaf cluster to his distinguished service medal.

TEN-YEAR TASK
SEEN IN REICHOccupation Of Germany
To Be Long Pull, Says
New Commander

BY JAMES F. KING

Frankfurt, Germany, Nov. 27 (AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney today predicted a 10-year minimum occupation of Germany, and declared the German people "must be made to realize that the war was their responsibility and their debt."

Formally taking over command of the American zone from Gen. Eisenhower, McNarney declared "I have not forgotten who started this war, and that the German people as a whole supported it wholeheartedly."

He said the occupation of Germany would last at least 10 years and undoubtedly even longer.

He foresaw "a long, hard pull" in the rehabilitation of Europe, but predicted that the continent's living standards could be raised above pre-war levels—"if we have time."

The whole American army policy, he said, would be directed at turning over the military government to a civilian administration as soon as possible.

In carrying out the de-Nazification program, the general said his command would give Nazi party members, "whether active or not," a "last priority" in everything.

Saying there would be no censorship, he told correspondents to "feel perfectly free to find out news and print it."

Yamashita Painted
As Exiled Pacifist

Manila, Nov. 27 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita was portrayed by a defense witness at his war crimes trial today as a member of a "pacifist" group who considered war with the United States "undesirable."

Yamashita's views made him so unpopular with Dictator-Premier Hideki Tojo that Yamashita was "exiled" to Manchuria, the witness, Keichu Yoshida, a Tokyo attorney, testified.

Yoshida testified Yamashita belonged to a "pacifist" group of former war minister General Ugaki opposed to Tojo.

Yamashita was sent to Tojo Germany and Italy to inspect battlefronts in 1941, the witness said, and when he returned he was demoted from superintendent general of the army air force to military counselor and sent to Manchuria.

Arbitrator Asked
In Wards Dispute

Chicago, Nov. 27 (AP)—A CIO union official today telegraphed Sewell Avery, Montgomery Ward & Co. board chairman, requesting an appointment to discuss matters involved in the company's labor walkout, and to name a mutually satisfactory arbitrator to attend the discussion.

Irving Abramson, national organizer for the United Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Employees Union, suggested Federal Judge William L. Sullivan of Chicago for the post. Judge Sullivan several months ago denied legality of the government's seizure of Ward properties last December.

A Ward official said no reply to Abramson's wire would be available until morning.

Burglars Pick Out
Returned Veterans

Detroit, Nov. 27 (AP)—Deputy Chief of Detectives William B. Dresden today warned returning service men that Detroit thieves are using army discharge insignia as a target.

His statement came after burglars ransacked the home of Robert Freund Jr., and took his $100 discharge allowance only a few hours after his arrival from a separation center.

REBELS MENACE
IRAN'S CAPITALForces Of Insurgents
Reported Marching
On Tehran

Tehran, Iran, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Iranian government officially announced tonight that an insurgent military force from Azerbaijan province in northern Iran was marching toward the Iranian capital city of Tehran.

Authorities ordered the capital defended at all costs.

A traveler from northern Iran earlier had reported that the insurgents had occupied Zenjan, 174 miles northwest of Tehran and were driving southward along the main rail line from Azerbaijan.

This would represent an advance of 56 miles from Mianeh, which the government announced last week had been occupied by what it called separatist forces.

In Tehran, youthful patriots appealed to the Shah for authorization to form a national guard to fight the insurgents. Other groups, protesting against "subversive rebel activities," offered to fight to preserve the unity of the nation.

The government still was blocked in efforts to send troops to the trouble zone, occupied by Russian forces under the 1942 British-Russian-Iranian treaty. Iranian reinforcements dispatched northward last week were halted at Kazvin, 90 miles southeast of Zenjan, by a Soviet commander.

Uruguay Backed Up
In Intervention For Internal Oppression

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—The United States today backed up a Uruguayan proposal for collective intervention in the internal affairs of any American republic violating human rights or its international obligations.

Secretary of State Byrnes issued a statement expressing this nation's "unqualified adherence" and declaring that if the American republics are to preserve the peace they "cannot permit oppressive regimes to exist in their midst."

Uruguayan Foreign Minister Alberto Rodriguez Larreta suggested the intervention policy, as a hemispheric security measure, in a note sent to other American republics last week.

While the note made no mention of any nation, diplomats regarded it as being aimed at the military government in Argentina.

Byrnes said the Allies, at a "huge cost in lives, blood and treasure," had won a victory "which means that men everywhere may properly demand" respect for human rights and dignity as an essential condition to the maintenance of peace and security.

PEACE MOVES
LAG IN LABOR
TIEUP OF GMCOMPANY OFFICIALS WILL NOT GO TO WASHINGTON

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—The government struck a snag tonight in its effort to get management and union leaders of the General Motors strike into a huddle with federal conciliators here.

Edgar L. Warren, chief of the U. S. conciliation service, told reporters he now had no definite arrangements to talk to GM President Charles E. Wilson or other company officials. Executives of the striking CIO United Automobile Workers are scheduled to talk to him tomorrow.

Earlier in the day Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach reported receiving word from Warren that Wilson would meet with Warren tomorrow, taking time out from the labor-management conference to which Wilson is a delegate.

This announcement drew a denial from Wilson, in Detroit. The GM president said there was "some mistake," that he had informed Warren at 4 p. m. that he would be unable to attend the labor-management conference this week because of the strike situation.

Another Delay
This would mean a delay, at least until next week, in the government's efforts to talk separately to the parties, in hope of finding a basis for renewed negotiations.

Warren, informed tonight of Wilson's statement, confirmed that the situation had changed, that Wilson was not now expected.

Schwellenbach, in announcing the government's intention of seeking a solution to the strike that hit GM last Wednesday, said the conferences would be informal.

The preliminary meeting with the UAW delegation is scheduled for 3 p. m., but the secretary said he would not necessarily participate in them.

The UAW announced shortly after Wilson's statement was released that Walter Reuther, union vice president, would leave for Washington tomorrow for the meeting.

In addition to Reuther, the union said it will be represented tomorrow by President R. J. Thomas, George Addes, Richard Frankenstein, Richard Leonard and Norman Matthews, and three members of its GM negotiating committee, Lou Adkins, Charles Oswald and Edward Crago.

Son Of MacNider
Gets Discharge But
Has Only 38 Points

Great Lakes, Ill., Nov. 27 (AP)—Pvt. Jack MacNider, son of Brig. Gen. Hanford MacNider, was discharged from the Marine Corps with 38 points today by special order at the request of his father and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Young MacNider, a veteran of two years service on Iwo Jima and in other Pacific battles, was 12 points short of the 50 required for discharge in the normal manner.

General MacNider, former national commander of the American Legion and a campaigner in both world wars, said at Mason City, I., that Jack had enlisted on his 17th birthday and "I asked permission to bring him back (from Japan) with me so he might continue his pre-med studies."

In Washington, the Marine Corps said young MacNider was "returned to the United States and discharged from the Marine Corps in accordance with the radio request of Gen. MacArthur, supreme commander on the Far East."

General MacNider said his son expects to enroll at Iowa State college, Ames, and eventually hopes to attend John Hopkins Medical School in Baltimore. He said he was "anxious to get him started as soon as possible because it takes eight or nine years to go through a complete medical course."

Detour Fares Made
Uniform At 10 Cents

Detroit, Nov. 27 (AP)—A uniform 10 cent fare with free transfers was approved today for Detroit's street cars and buses, ending a long-standing controversy.

The new rates will become effective January 1 and will replace fares which have varied from four to 11 cents.

School children will continue to ride for six cents, and blind persons will ride free instead of paying four cents as in the past.

Pilots Angry; Lives
Lost Flying Planes
Over Hump To China

Chungking, Nov. 27 (AP)—A reported mass movement of United States planes into North China from Burma and India and the sudden resignation of American Ambassador Patrick J. Hurley brought into sharp focus today the fateful question of United States policy in this country's undeclared civil war.

Hurley quit his post with the blunt statement that American policy had failed in Asia and that the effect of it now was to "undermine democracy and bolster imperialism and communism."

In Shanghai, meanwhile, Associated Press Correspondent Richard Cushing found American air force pilots "debating angrily" their postwar assignment to the perilous job of flying planes wholesale over "the Hump" from India and that the effect of it now was to "undermine democracy and bolster imperialism and communism."

Ranking officers told Cushing that virtually every flyable plane in India and Burma was being sent to China in an operation which already has cost several American lives.

The Chinese press said a few weeks ago that the United States had decided to hand over 1,300 planes to the central government, but in Washington the war department at that time countered that no such number had been decided on.

Just how Generalissimo Chiang planned to use the planes in his announced all-out campaign to restore order and unity in China remained to be seen. His ground forces were pushing ahead vigorously into Manchuria, scheduled under the terms of the Sino-Russian agreement to be evacuated soon by the Soviet troops presently occupying it.

Chungking newspapers said Nationalist forces had advanced 40 miles along the Peiping-Mukden railroad to Kowpangze, 90 miles from Mukden. No opposition by Chinese Communists was reported.

The influential daily Ta Kung Pao added that the Communists had withdrawn from Changchun, the Manchurian capital from which Chinese central government officials recently fled.

Today it was insistently, but unofficially, reported that the fugitive officials were on the point of returning to Changchun.

This was in line with Chinese press reports that the Russians had agreed to permit Nationalist forces to garrison Manchuria, and had even pledged the safety of any Nationalist troops which might be flown into Changchun or Mukden.

Russia will adhere to the spirit of the Sino-Soviet friendship and alliance pact, these reports asserted, but will postpone withdrawal of Soviet troops from Manchuria until January.

Differences among the delegates, which leaders were seeking desperately to reconcile, were so well-defined that only two subcommittees were expected to submit unanimous recommendations to the executive committee, the other four bringing in split reports.

Last Tributes Paid
Pyle's 'That Girl'

Afton, Minn., Nov. 27 (AP)—They buried "That Girl" of Ernie Pyle's today amid evergreens on a snow-blanketed hill overlooking the picturesque St. Croix River.

It was "back home" for Mrs. Geraldine Pyle, 44-year-old widow of the famed war correspondent.

The services were as she had wished them—with only near relatives, a few intimate friends of herself and her husband, and Ernie's father and his "Aunt Mary" to pay last tribute to her memory.

Mrs. Pyle died last Friday in an Albuquerque, N. M., hospital, seven months after a Jap sniper had killed her husband on Ie Shima, off Okinawa.

She had not wanted to live after that. Her brother-in-law, Roy Johnson of Stillwater, said today that after her husband's death, Mrs. Pyle had expressed a hope that she soon could "join Ernie."

No 2 A. M. Closing
On New Year's Eve

Lansing, Nov. 27 (AP)—The state liquor control commission today extended the selling hours for state liquor stores in metropolitan areas of the state during the holiday period, removed the 2 a. m. New Year's eve curfew on bars and set 9 p. m. as closing time for sale of liquors on Christmas eve.

Beginning Dec. 1, state store outlets in metropolitan areas will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., except for the two stores in downtown Detroit which will remain open until 11 p. m. daily. The new schedule operates on a six day basis.

The commission authorized bars to remain open until 4 a. m. New Year's day suspending the usual closing hour for New Year's eve celebration.

Individual Victory

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—Victory bond sales to individuals through today totaled $3,159,000,000 of which $833,000,000 was in E bonds. The individual goal is $4,000,000,000 of an overall of $11,000,000,000 in the drive which ends December 8.

The treasury announced that Montana became the second state in the union to go over the top on E bonds in the Victory Loan.

ATOMIC 'ACTION'
PUSHED IN 1939Economist Reveals Part
Played By Roosevelt
In Research

BY FRANCIS J. KELLY

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Senate atomic energy committee heard today that the late President Roosevelt called for "action" in October, 1939, on the research which produced the atomic bomb.

The statement came from Alexander Sachs, first witness in a series of public hearings expected to lead to legislation for control of domestic development of nuclear energy.

Sachs, a New York economist, testified that he acted as a liaison man between a group of physicists—including Albert Einstein—and the White House.

He said the president had told him he would have to serve as a kind of historian for the atomic project, as White House aides had too many other duties.

The "zig-zag" trail which led to the spending of more than $2,000,000,000 and the blasting of Hiroshima and Nagasaki passed through the White House October 11, 1939, Sachs told the senators. It was then, he said, that he informed Mr. Roosevelt of the work done by Drs. Leo Szilard and E. Fermi toward splitting the uranium atom.

Sachs said he told Mr. Roosevelt of German experimentation and that the Nazis had embargoed the export of uranium from Czechoslovakia after seizing that country.

Four Detroit Wards
Stores Picketed In CIO Work Stoppage

Detroit, Nov. 27 (AP)—A nationwide strike call brought out pickets at four Detroit stores of Montgomery Ward & Co. today but apparently failed to affect the company's outlets elsewhere in Michigan.

Roy Scoggins, Michigan director of the United Retail, Wholesale, and Department Store Employees (CIO), said 1,000 regular and 500 temporary employees of the four stores here responded to the call for the work stoppage.

However, R. W. Rosevear, general manager of the company in Detroit, said more than 90 percent of the employees were at work and that business was continuing "as usual."

Scoggins said the walkout, which began in protest over the company's refusal of a union demand to arbitrate wages and security issues, will continue to Dec. 3 and will be resumed again later.

Unaffected by the stoppage are outlets at Lansing, Saginaw, St. Joseph, Jackson, Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Ludington, Sault Ste. Marie, Ann Arbor, Traverse City, and Port Huron.

Shoe Ceilings Up
For Manufacturers

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—Manufacturers' ceiling prices for shoes will be increased four and one-half percent to cover rising production costs, OPA announced today.

The official order to effect this probably will be issued in December, the OPA statement informed the shoe manufacturers' industry advisory committee at a meeting here.

OPA said there probably would be no change in prices consumers will pay. However, no final decision on this will be announced until a study of distributors' costs and earnings is completed.

OPA said present indications are that wholesalers and retailers can absorb the entire amount of the general increase in manufacturers' prices. The industry committee protested this idea.

SPECIAL FIXER
JOB ACCEPTED
BY MARSHALLCAPITAL STUNNED
BY BITTER NOTE OF AMBASSADOR

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—General of the Army George C. Marshall was appointed special envoy to China late today after the U. S. Ambassador, Major Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, had resigned with a bitter denunciation of career diplomats and a warning that a third world war was "in the making."

The two events, coming in rapid-fire order, stunned the capital.

First the dashing Hurley, who was secretary of war under Herbert Hoover and global troubleshooter for Franklin D. Roosevelt, released a scathing 1,800 word statement virtually unprecedented in recent diplomatic history.

Foreign Policy Wrecked
It charged unnamed professional diplomats with wrecking U. S. foreign policy. Instead of backing democracy and unity in China, he said, they "sided with the Communist armed party and imperialistic bloc of nations whose policy it was to keep China divided against itself."

Secretary of state Byrnes went into a quick huddle with President Truman and other officials. Then White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross called reporters into his office.

After announcing that the president had accepted the Hurley resignation, he disclosed that Mr. Truman had named Marshall as his special envoy with the rank of ambassador. The assignment will be temporary.

"Particular" Task Waiting
As Ross related it, the president telephoned the five-star general, who only last week retired as United States chief of staff, and asked:

"Will you go, General Marshall?"

"I will, Mr. President," Marshall replied.

Ross explained that Marshall's assignment "is to do a particular job that needs to be done in China."

Hurley's statement charged that American diplomats serving in Chungking had thwarted realization of policies announced by the top level leadership of the United States.

When he had these men sent back to Washington from Chungking, he said, some of them were given posts as his supervisors in the State Department and some were sent as advisors to the supreme commander in Asia, Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

"In such positions," he said, "most of them have continued to side with the Communist armed party and at times with the imperialistic bloc against American policy."

"The United States," he said, should avoid lining up with any "predatory ideology." He said it should support revision of the United Nations Charter to "make it democratic."

Inner Conflict Indicated
As other remedial steps, he urged that the light of "factual publicity be thrown on the 'secrecy' surrounding the state department, and that the government reorganize its 'policy-making machinery beginning at the lowest official levels."

The White House indicated that Hurley's resignation and statement came as a surprise.

The state department had no immediate comment. Stunned officials said privately Hurley's blast was virtually without precedent.

WHITNEY BACK IN YOKOHAMA

Escanaban Is Commander Of U. S. Hospital Ship Comfort

Commander Rintoul T. Whitney, who spent several years in a Japanese prison camp in the Philippines, is now commander of the U.S.S. Comfort, American hospital ship at Yokohama, Japan, he has informed friends in Escanaba. Commander Whitney served at Yokohama on several occasions prior to the outbreak of the war. Commander Whitney wrote to John P. Norton, publisher of the Escanaba Daily Press, as follows: "The Press and people of Escanaba were so kind to me this last summer I wanted to write and thank you. I have been very much on the go since I saw you last. I finished treatment at a naval hospital, then attended the various naval schools for three months to catch up on new developments in radar, anti-aircraft, etc.

"After parking my family in San Francisco, I took a 10,000-mile air trip around the Pacific ocean—Frisco to Honolulu to Johnston Island, Kwajalein, Guam, Manila. While at Manila I attended the trial of Japanese General Yamashita. No doubt he will be executed. Then I flew to Guam, then to Tokyo, stopping at Iwo Jima enroute.

"I was very much surprised at the amount of damage our bombers did to Tokyo and Yokohama. Nearly all the larger buildings are destroyed. The Japs are very much subdued and they bow to us now. I tried to get a couple of souvenirs but the country is somewhat depleted by the war and they are hard to find.

"At Yokohama I took command of the hospital ship Comfort. We have over 400 in the crew besides 41 nurses and 21 doctors and have beds for 700 patients. The Comfort is a well-known ship. She was hit by a kamikaze last November and 29 were killed and 39 injured in the operating room. A short time ago she left the Navy yard fully repaired."

A similar letter was received by Mrs. Anton Embs, 325 South 17th street.

Churchill Launches First Assaults On Labor Government

London, Nov. 27 (AP)—Winston Churchill tonight launched the Conservative party's first major offensive against Britain's Labor government with a demand that commonsense be used in the cabinet for "neglecting" major national problems in favor of socialist projects.

Churchill submitted to the house a broadly-phrased censure motion accusing Prime Minister Attlee and his government of failing to deal effectively with reconstruction, demobilization and housing because of a "pre-occupation" with long-term plans to nationalize industries.

The motion—which, if approved, could lead to the resignation of the Labor government—was almost certainly foredoomed because of Labor's overwhelming voting majority.

Churchill, in the role of leader of "His Majesty's loyal opposition," offered the motion without comment. He was expected to dent in the department's history.

Most members of congress who were approached for reaction said they wanted to study the statement further. Some legislators noted that at one point Hurley charged the professional diplomats with supporting Chinese communists and at another asserted that "we are permitting ourselves to be sucked into a power bloc on the side of colonial imperialism against communist imperialism." They said they would like further elaboration of those statements before commenting.

However, Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.), who has been critical of American foreign policy recently, interpreted Hurley's statement as meaning "there is conflict within the state department."

Fred L. Benette Heads Men's Club Of St. Stephen's

Fred L. Benette was elected president of St. Stephen's Episcopal Men's Club at a meeting which followed a 6:30 o'clock dinner last evening in the Guild hall. Other officers elected to serve with Mr. Benette during the ensuing year are W. J. Henderson, first vice-president; Barnett Mills, second vice-president; F. W. Loos, secretary and Joseph Rouse, treasurer.

Following the short business session, club members and their guests were entertained by Richard Oslund, junior high school student, who staged a magic show with the assistance of his young sister Mary.

Speaker of the evening was Lt. Col. Loren W. Jenkins, who was recently separated from service with the U. S. Army Engineers. His subject was "Escanaba Engineers in the European War."

With assistance from Major Leonard Ward, Jenkins presented a graphic account of the activities of the men who left Escanaba as the 107th Engineers from the time just prior to the invasion of Normandy to the end of the war. Supplementing the talk was a display of maps and photographs.

Manistique News TO ELECT AAA COMMITTEEMEN

Elections To Be Held Throughout County Next Week

The schedule for AAA committeemen elections in Schoolcraft county was announced this week by Norman Stauffer, chairman of the county AAA committee.

Mr. Stauffer listed the communities, the polling places, and the dates and hours as follows:

Germfask - Mueller, Dec. 3, 8 p. m. at high school building, Germfask.

Inwood - Thompson, Dec. 4, 8 p. m. at Consolidated school building.

Hiawatha, Dec. 4, 8 p. m. at Maple Grove school.

Manistique - Doyle, Dec. 5, 8 p. m. at Birthday Dance hall.

In each community, farmers will elect three regular committeemen and two alternates. Elected at the same time will be delegates to a county convention to be held December 7, where a county committee will be elected for the coming year.

The AAA chairman said approximately 375 farmers are eligible to cast ballots in community elections. This number includes all farmers who are cooperating in the agricultural conservation, sugar, or crop insurance program.

Discussing the role of community committeemen, Mr. Stauffer pointed out that soil conservation will continue to loom among AAA program objectives. Under next year's program, Schoolcraft county has been allocated $9,968 for soil conservation practices, and committeemen will have more responsibility in working with their neighbors to round out soil-building plans for each individual farm. This is only one of the programs for which committeemen have a great responsibility.

Schoolcraft county farmers received in practice payments for 1944 $6,376 plus $1,934 increase on small payments, making a total of $8,310. The 1946 program will be on a budget basis with the community and county committees deciding what each farm may earn within the budget allowance.

Garber, general manager of public works and utilities, the city commission voted unanimously to authorize the city attorney, chief of police and general manager to draft an ordinance regulating operation of taxicabs in Marquette.

The commission also voted approval of a recommendation from Mayor Beckman that issuance of taxicab permits to new operators be held in abeyance pending action on the proposed ordinance.

Decision to draft a new taxi ordinance is the result of a request from Earl Rowe and Howard Messenger for permission to set up a new cab service in the city. When the request was received the commission instructed General Manager Garber to investigate and report on the taxicab situation.

SCHOOL MUSIC
DIRECTOR HIRED

Albert L. Shomento Will Handle Instrumental Program Here

Albert L. Shomento, former member of the Duluth and Minneapolis symphony orchestras, signed a contract here yesterday to become director of instrumental music in the Escanaba public schools. He will assume his new duties on Jan. 1.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Mr. Shomento has been a professional musician for 20 years. He played in the Minneapolis symphony orchestra while Eugene Ormandy was director.

For 10 years, he served as director of music of the Nashwauk, Minn., public schools. His high school band won three state championship contests.

Mr. Shomento played solo trombone and baritone in the official U. S. Army Air Forces band two years. The band played concerts at the national capitol steps, Washington monument and Watergate in Washington, and after appearing at the Quebec conference sailed for Europe. While based at London, the group gave concerts for the royal family and the prime minister, later playing at Paris and the Yalta conference.

Returning to this country with General Eisenhower last year, the Army Air Forces band marched in the homecoming parade and played at the state dinner at the White House. Going back to Europe, it toured England, France and Luxembourg, and was caught in the Belgian Bulge, where the band members were assigned to duty as stretcher bearers. Three of the musicians lost their lives in this service.

Mr. Shomento is married and has three children.

HERRING RUN IS UNDER WAY

McDonald Brothers Tug
Brings In Over 1,800
Pounds Yesterday

Starting late, the 1945 herring run in Green bay may yet be a productive season for commercial fishermen if the run develops into normal proportions and the weather is favorable, commercial fishermen reported here yesterday.

The new all-steel 48-foot fish tug McDonald Brothers of Washington Island, owned by Dan and George McDonald, arrived at the Hansen & Jensen fish market dock last evening with over 1800 pounds of herring. Sunday the McDonald brought in over 1100 pounds, and yesterday the Jane of Washington Island, owned by George Nelson and sons, unloaded over 1200 pounds of herring.

Fishermen were concerned earlier in the season whether the run would develop in the northern section of the bay, although fairly good catches were reported made south of Menominee.

Most of the local fish tugs are rather small for herring fishing, but are fishing perch. The Washington Island boats are fishing in Michigan waters.

The McDonald Brothers is one of the newest type fish boats on the lakes. It was launched in July at Manitowoc.

Fishermen are hoping the herring run will approach the volume of past years, when tugs the size of the McDonald Brothers and Jane would come in with 4,000 to 6,000 pounds a day.

FISH TUGS BUILT

Sturgeon Bay, Wis.—The first of four 92-foot trawlers being built by the Sturgeon Bay Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Co. for the Atlantic coast commercial trade has cleared port for Boston by way of the Erie canal, and a second will be on its way by midwinter, William Wolter, general manager, has announced.

The purchasers of the steel welded craft are L. T. Vickers and John Nakash.

The yard, which was engaged in army ship construction throughout the war, also has laid a keel for a 90-foot river tow boat for the United States Gypsum Co. of Chicago, and recently completed steel welded fish tugs for Richard Barbeaux of Fayette, Mich., and Weborg Brothers and Clarence Lind of Ellison Bay.

Pfc. Alfred Hansen
Gets Silver Star

Pfc. Alfred C. Hansen, son of Peter Hansen, Stonington, has been awarded the silver star for gallantry in action, it has been announced.

The citation follows: "For gallantry in action on 28 February, 1945, in the vicinity of Lemberg, France. As member of the battalion raider platoon, Pfc. Hansen was on a patrol inside the enemy's defensive lines, when the patrol leader stepped on a Schu mine, becoming seriously wounded. When the platoon sergeant went to the patrol leader's rescue and also stepped on a mine, the enemy became alerted and sprayed the area with heavy machine gun and small arms fire. Defiant of the enemy fire, Pfc. Hansen went forward, found the sergeant, administered first aid, and then helped him back of our lines. Then, leading a searching party, he returned again to the same area and conducted an exhaustive search for the patrol leader, until daylight forced him to withdraw. Private Hansen's courageous and aggressive action saved the life of one man, and his second gallant attempt at rescue won the respect and admiration of his entire organization."

The real "take-home"

If wages go up and output does not—living costs rise. Then a man may be no better off than he was in the first place.

As a matter of fact, he may be worse off. Because that's the start of the inflation spiral with its mounting cyclone of confusion. And once the spiral starts, prices usually keep two jumps ahead of wages.

It doesn't help to have $2 to spend instead of $1, if eggs go to $1, then $1.50, then $2 a dozen—and butter and bread and shoes and shirts double, then triple, in price.

That's the trouble with the theory that you can increase buying power simply by raising wages.

The most important thing isn't what a man makes in wages per week—

The most important thing is how much he can buy with the wages he makes.

The "take-home" that really counts isn't what you take home in pay, but what you can take home from the store!

WHITNEY BACK IN YOKOHAMA

Escanaban Is Commander Of U. S. Hospital Ship Comfort

Commander Rintoul T. Whitney, who spent several years in a Japanese prison camp in the Philippines, is now commander of the U.S.S. Comfort, American hospital ship at Yokohama, Japan, he has informed friends in Escanaba. Commander Whitney served at Yokohama on several occasions prior to the outbreak of the war. Commander Whitney wrote to John P. Norton, publisher of the Escanaba Daily Press, as follows: "The Press and people of Escanaba were so kind to me this last summer I wanted to write and thank you. I have been very much on the go since I saw you last. I finished treatment at a naval hospital, then attended the various naval schools for development in radar, anti-aircraft, etc.

"After parking my family in San Francisco, I took a 10,000-mile air trip around the Pacific ocean—Frisco to Honolulu to Johnston Island, Kwajalein, Guam, Manila. While at Manila I attended the trial of Japanese General Yamashita. No doubt he will be executed. Then I flew to Guam, then to Tokyo, stopping at two Jima enroute.

"I was very much surprised at the amount of damage our bombers did to Tokyo and Yokohama. Nearly all the larger buildings are destroyed. The Japs are very much subdued and they bow to us now. I tried to get a couple of souvenirs but the country is somewhat depleted by the war and they are hard to find.

"At Yokohama I took command of the hospital ship Comfort. We have over 400 in the crew besides 41 nurses and 21 doctors and have beds for 700 patients. The Comfort is a well-known ship. She was hit by a kamikaze last November and 29 were killed and 39 injured in the operating room. A short time ago she left the Navy yard fully repaired."

A similar letter was received by Mrs. Anton Embs, 325 South 17th street.

Churchill Launches First Assaults On Labor Government

London, Nov. 27 (AP)—Winston Churchill tonight launched the Conservative party's first major offensive against Britain's Labor government with a demand that commonsense be used in the cabinet for "neglecting" major national problems in favor of socialist projects. Churchill submitted to the house a broadly-phrased censure motion accusing Prime Minister Attlee and his government of failing to deal effectively with reconversion, demobilization and housing because of a "pre-occupation" with long-term plans to nationalize industries.

The motion—which, if approved, could lead to the resignation of the Labor government—was almost certainly foredoomed because of Labor's overwhelming voting majority.

Churchill, in the role of leader of "His Majesty's loyal opposition," offered the motion without comment. He was expected to dent in the department's history.

Most members of congress who were approached for reaction said they wanted to study the statement further. Some legislators noted that at one point Hurley charged the professional diplomats with supporting Chinese communists and at another asserted that "we are permitting ourselves to be sucked into a power bloc on the side of colonial imperialism against the communist imperialism." They said they would like further elaboration of those statements before commenting.

However, Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.), who has been critical of American foreign policy recently, interpreted Hurley's statement as meaning "there is conflict within the state department."

Fred L. Benette Heads Benette's Club Of St. Stephen's

Fred L. Benette was elected president of St. Stephen's Episcopal Men's Club at a meeting which followed a 6:30 o'clock dinner last evening in the Guild hall. Other officers elected to serve with Mr. Benette during the ensuing year are W. J. Henderson, first vice-president; Barnett Mills, second vice-president; F. W. Following the short business session, club members and their guests were entertained by Richard Oslund, junior high school student, who staged a magic show with the assistance of his young sister Mary.

Speaker of the evening was Lt. Col. Loren W. Jenkins, who was recently separated from service with the U. S. Army Engineers. His subject was "Escanaba Engineers in the European War."

With assistance from Major Leonard Ward, Jenkins presented a graphic account of the activities of the men who left Escanaba as the 107th Engineers from the time just prior to the invasion of Normandy to the end of the war. Supplementing the talk was a display of maps and photographs.

TO ELECT AAA COMMITTEEMEN

Elections To Be Held Throughout County Next Week

The schedule for AAA committee elections in Schoolcraft county was announced this week by Norman Stauffer, chairman of the county AAA committee.

Mr. Stauffer listed the communities, the polling places, and the dates and hours as follows: Germfask - Mueller, Dec. 3, 8 p. m. at high school building, Germfask.

Inwood - Thompson, Dec. 4, 8 p. m. at Consolidated school building.

Hiawatha, Dec. 4, 8 p. m. at Maple Grove school.

Manistique - Doyle, Dec. 5, 8 p. m. at Birthday Grange hall.

In each community, farmers will elect three regular committeemen and two alternates. Elected at the same time will be delegates to a county convention to be held December 7, where a county committee will be elected for the coming year.

The AAA chairman said approximately 375 farmers are eligible to cast ballots in community elections. This number includes all farmers who are cooperating in the agricultural conservation, sugar, or crop insurance program.

Discussing the role of community committeemen, Mr. Stauffer pointed out that soil conservation will continue to loom among AAA program objectives. Under next year's program, Schoolcraft county has been allocated $9,968 for soil conservation practices, and committeemen will have more responsibility in working with their neighbors to round out soil-building plans for each individual farm. This is only one of the programs for which committeemen have a great responsibility.

Schoolcraft county farmers received in practice payments for 1944 $6,376 plus $1,934 increase on small payments, making a total of $8,310. The 1946 program will be on a budget basis with the community and county committees deciding what each farm may earn within the budget allowance.

Marquette.—Concurring in recommendations of Mayor James J. Beckman and Stephen L. Garber, general manager of public works and utilities, the city commission voted unanimously to authorize the city attorney, chief of police and general manager to draft an ordinance regulating operation of taxicabs in Marquette.

The commission also voted approval of a recommendation from Mayor Beckman that issuance of taxicab permits to new operators be held in abeyance pending action on the proposed ordinance.

Poet Pound Mental Case, Says Attorney In Treason Hearing

Washington, Nov. 27 (AP)—Ezra Pound, American poet, pleaded innocent today to a charge of treason and was ordered removed to an institution for mental observation.

District Court chief Justice Bolitha J. Laws issued the order after the poet's attorney, Julian Cornell, told the court that the 60-year-old poet did not have sufficient judgement to enter his own plea to the charge that he broadcast propaganda for Fascist Italy during the war. Cornell said that if Pound spent another night in jail he probably would not be able to stand trial.

Justice Laws said he would decide, after receiving a psychiatrist report, if the court should grant a request that the poet be placed on bond.

Cornell said Pound is suffering from claustrophobia and that he may even lose his life if he is not sent to a hospital.

Government Attorney Edward Matlack, who opposed the request that Pound be released on bond, agreed to his removal to a hospital for observation.

SCHOOL MUSIC DIRECTOR HIRED

Albert L. Shomento Will Handle Instrumental Program Here

Albert L. Shomento, former member of the Duluth and Minneapolis symphony orchestras, signed a contract here yesterday to become director of instrumental music in the Escanaba public schools. He will assume his new duties on Jan. 1.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Mr. Shomento has been a professional musician for 20 years. He played in the Minneapolis symphony orchestra while Eugene Ormandy was director.

For 10 years, he served as director of music of the Nashwauk, Minn., public schools. His high school band won three state championship contests.

Mr. Shomento played solo trombone and baritone in the official U. S. Army Air Forces band two years. The band played concerts at the national capitol steps, Washington monument and Watergate in Washington, and after appearing at the Quebec conference sailed for Europe. While based at London, the group gave concerts for the royal family and the prime minister, later playing at Paris and the Yalta conference.

Returning to this country with General Eisenhower last year, the Army Air Forces band marched in the homecoming parade and played at the state dinner at the White House. Going back to Europe, it toured England, France and Luxembourg, and was caught in the Belgian Bulge, where the band members were assigned to duty as stretcher bearers. Three of the musicians lost their lives in this service.

Mr. Shomento is married and has three children.

The program will consist of the following acts: The magician, Richard Gilbert; clown boxing, Carl Franzen, David Gilbert, and "Squippy" Perryman; snake charmer, Cleve Moore, Jr.; Bo the Bum and Shorty, Duane Benard and Milton Peterson; strong man, Sammy Mills, assisted by Tommy Gafner; Senior Bullseye, Jack Pillotte, assisted by James Peterson; wrestling match, Eugene Slagstad and Tommy Gafner; educated horse, James King, Tom Klasek, trainer James Bolm; tiger rope walker, Wayne Ilse, and a musical trio, Milton Peterson, Jack Pillotte, and David Gilbert.

The side shows of the circus are outstanding, consisting of games of skill, fish pond, and nine acts of the freak show.

During the circus, a Cub graduation ceremony will be presented to the audience, at which time several Cubs will receive their rank of advancement as well as graduation certificates into Scout-ing.

A large handicraft display will be exhibited, showing the various kinds of handicraft made in the Dens of the Cub Pack, along with a Cubbing motion picture, of special interest to the parents and adults.

During intermission, in preparation for the grand parade, those in attendance will have the opportunity to get acquainted with other members of the Cubbing program, as well as enjoy lunch of hot dogs and other refreshments, under the auspices of Den 3.

The grand parade will be the final number on the circus program, with music furnished by Cub Scout Francis Artley. An outstanding feature of the grand parade will be the "Quirt", and in order to be appreciated, it must be seen.

All funds derived from the circus, will be used for the purchasing of equipment for the Pack, in order that it may operate more successfully.

HERRING RUN IS UNDER WAY

McDonald Brothers Tug Brings In Over 1,800 Pounds Yesterday

Starting late, the 1945 herring run in Green bay may yet be a productive season for commercial fishermen if the run develops into normal proportions and the weather is favorable, commercial fishermen reported here yesterday.

The new all-steel 48-foot fish tug McDonald Brothers of Washington Island, owned by Dan and George McDonald, arrived at the Hansen & Jensen fish market dock last evening with over 1800 pounds of herring. Sunday the McDonald brought in over 1100 pounds, and yesterday the Jane of Washington Island, owned by George Nelson and sons, unloaded over 1200 pounds of herring.

Fishermen were concerned earlier in the season whether the run would develop in the northern section of the bay, although fairly good catches were reported made south of Menominee.

Most of the local fish tugs are rather small for herring fishing, but are fishing perch. The Washington Island boats are fishing in Michigan waters.

The McDonald Brothers is one of the newest type fish boats on the lakes. It was launched in July at Manitowoc.

Fishermen are hoping the herring run will approach the volume of past years, when tugs the size of the McDonald Brothers and Jane would come in with 4,000 to 6,000 pounds a day.

FISH TUGS BUILT

Sturgeon Bay, Wis.—The first of four 92-foot trawlers being built by the Sturgeon Bay Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Co. for the Atlantic coast commercial trade has cleared port for Boston by way of the Erie canal, and a second will be on its way by midwinter, William Wolter, general manager, has announced.

The purchasers of the steel welded craft are L. T. Vickers and John Nakash.

The yard, which was engaged in army ship construction throughout the war, also has laid a keel for a 90-foot river tow boat for the United States Gypsum Co. of Chicago, and recently completed steel welded fish tugs for Richard Barbeaux of Favette, Mich., and Weborg Brothers and Clarence Lind of Ellison Bay.

Pfc. Alfred Hansen Gets Silver Star

Pfc. Alfred C. Hansen, son of Peter Hansen, Stonington, has been awarded the silver star for gallantry in action, it has been announced.

The citation follows: "For gallantry in action on 28 February, 1945, in the vicinity of Lemberg, France. As member of the battalion raider platoon, Pvt. Hansen was on a patrol inside the enemy's defensive lines, when the patrol leader stepped on a Schu mine, becoming seriously wounded. When the platoon sergeant went to the patrol leader's rescue and also stepped on a mine, the enemy became alerted and sprayed the area with heavy machine gun and small arms fire. Defiant of the enemy fire, Pvt. Hansen went forward, found the sergeant, administered first aid, and then helped him back of our lines. Then, leading a searching party, he returned again to the same area and conducted an exhaustive search for the patrol leader, until daylight forced him to withdraw. Private Hansen's courageous and aggressive action saved the life of one man, and his second gallant attempt at rescue won the respect and admiration of his entire organization."

The real "take-home"

If wages go up and output does not—living costs rise. Then a man may be no better off than he was in the first place.

As a matter of fact, he may be worse off. Because that's the start of the inflation spiral with its mounting cyclone of confusion. And once the spiral starts, prices usually keep two jumps ahead of wages.

It doesn't help to have $2 to spend instead of $1, if eggs go to $1, then $1.50, then $2 a dozen—and butter and bread and shoes and shirts double, then triple, in price.

That's the trouble with the theory that you can increase buying power simply by raising wages.

The most important thing isn't what a man makes in wages per week—

The most important thing is how much he can buy with the wages he makes.

The "take-home" that really counts isn't what you take home in pay, but what you can take home from the store!

Crime Doesn't Pay

THE Japanese are learning that the crime of aggressive warfare doesn't pay. General MacArthur, conqueror-ruler of Japan, has directed that the Japanese government tax away all of the war profits of Japanese firms and individuals. In addition, the wealth of corporations and individuals will be stripped up to as much as 70 per cent under the terms of MacArthur's directive. Even the private fortune of the emperor, which bulged to tremendous figures as a result of war profits, is not exempt from the order.

The tax order serves two worthwhile purposes. First of all, it rightfully strips all Japanese of financial gain as a result of their war profits. Secondly, it will provide a financial basis for the rebuilding of Japan along peaceful lines.

Another MacArthur directive orders the termination of all service pensions, except compensation for physical disability. The purpose of this directive, of course, is to strip Japanese militarists of financial support from the government that they led to ruin. It will also relieve the Japanese people of the strain of heavy taxation to pay for the upkeep of the military clique. The Japanese people will have hard enough going in the years ahead trying to eke out a living in the face of restricted industry and heavy reparations.

Most important, these directives will serve to set an example for any Japanese of the future with aggressive ambitions.

Must Recognize It

WE Americans may not like to think of ourselves as being slow but sure; but in at least one respect this is a perfectly fair description of us. We have always recognized the danger of fascism whenever it has appeared importantly in the world. In this sense we have been sure. But we have always been slow in our recognition.

Mussolini marched on Rome, and used castor oil as a political weapon. His armies raped Ethiopia, murdered Spain and stabbed France in the back. With judicious calm we watched these actions over a period of some two decades and finally came to the conclusion that this thing in Italy was dangerous.

We watched the rise of Hitler in Germany. We read "Mein Kampf." We read about the invasion of Poland, the enslavement of Scandinavia, the crushing of France, the blitzing of London. Once again we slowly came to the conclusion that this German thing is fascism.

We heard about Emperor-worship in Japan. We saw the slaughter in Manchuria. Finally, when the Jap planes attacked Pearl Harbor, we knew that Japan also had its brand of fascism.

It was safe in pre-atomic days to recognize fascism in retrospect. It is no longer safe. In this atomic age the full flowering of fascism in any country will be accompanied by the pressing of the button that sets off the atomic rockets. It is necessary that we learn some simple method of recognizing fascism before it reaches its full, aggressive stage.

When books are burned, when churches are closed, when public meetings are forbidden, when free elections are barred, fascism exists. At that stage we must so label it and oppose it. To blink our eyes at it, then, to appease it, then, to allow it to grow. If it grows we are lost. There will no longer be a Dunkirk, a Pearl Harbor offered to us as an acute symptom of fascism, and leaving us sufficient time to act against it. Only a living people can oppose fascism. An atomically vaporized people cannot.

Don't Be Selfish

ALTHOUGH the lid has been lifted on all food rationing, except sugar, there still exists shortages of some items. Butter is a case in point for the time being.

Nobody will suffer, however, if the consuming public will buy sensibly. There should be no return to the pre-rationing mania of hoarding. Much sugar, coffee and other foods were allowed to spoil because some selfish people bought up quantities much greater than they were able to consume. This represented an inexcusable waste of foods, which were also being denied other needy people.

The nuisance of keeping careful check on ration coupons has ended. Let's not bring back rationing by resumption of hoarding.

Shop and Mail Early

THE Christmas shopping season in Escanaba and other communities is already underway, and so appeals to the public to shop early are in order. Equally appropriate is the plea to do Christmas mailing early.

Fewer Americans had to make an October deadline for Christmas mail this fall than in two previous years. But for the very reason that thousands of service men and women will be getting their mail at home this Christmas, the postoffice department reminds us of another important mailing deadline—Dec. 10.

Postal authorities say it is more important than ever that Christmas cards and packages be mailed by that date. Railroads and airlines are carrying the heaviest loads in their history. Thousands of civilian war workers have returned to former addresses, which will necessitate forwarding of mail. All these things add up to delay.

And so the postoffice asks us, besides mailing by Dec. 10, to observe these other simple rules: Address correctly, and wrap all packages securely. Don't mail armfuls of Christmas cards and packages the same day. Space out your mailing over a few days so as to avoid congestion and confusion at the postoffice. Mail Christmas cards first class, especially in cases where persons to whom they are addressed may have moved. Cards not sent first class will not be forwarded.

Another Bus Tragedy

ALMOST every year the newspaper headlines announce the occurrence of a school bus tragedy in which the lives of a large number of children are snuffed out. School buses hit by trains, overturning at sharp corners, or colliding with other vehicles are too often in the news. Latest traffic accident of this type was the drowning of 15 children when their bus left the road in a snowstorm and plunged into a lake near Chelan, Wash.

Drivers of school buses hold positions of great responsibility. In their hands are entrusted the lives of children they transport to and from school daily. They must be sober, careful, capable and intelligent operators. They should be picked according to their ability and character, and not because of any political influence.

School bus accidents have been few in the Upper Peninsula in recent years. Playing an important role in promoting safety has been the holding of schools of instruction for bus drivers at intervals. At these schools, pointers in the safe handling of buses are given by state police and other safety experts. It is safety education program that should be continued year after year.

HE BRIGHTENED THE WORLD

(Christian Science Monitor)

Jerome Kern was a happy man. Probably that is why his music was so popular. For to his gift of melody he added a lilt that lent wings even to the songs that were touched with melancholy. "Ol' Man River," perhaps his most widely known composition, is ruminative rather than sad, and it has thoughtfulness, reflecting that rare quality which his collaborator, Oscar Hammerstein, 2d, imparted to the lyrics. This song is soon to be heard again in the theater in a new production of the Kern-Hammerstein "Show Boat," and once more it will be the hit of the show, as it always has been, whether Jules Bleedsoe, Paul Robeson, or any one of many others who have won acclaim in it was singing.

Then there was the gay little ditty, so expressive of youthful romance, "They Didn't Believe Me," first sung in Mr. Kern's "The Girl From Utah" by Julia Sanderson, and by millions of other girls in front parlors from Eastport to San Diego. The same youthfulness is in his music for Deanna Durbin's new film, "Can't Help Singing." There was brightness and merriment in all his scores—"Music in the Air," "Sally," in which Marilyn Miller sang "Look for the Silver Lining," "The Cat and the Fiddle," "Sweet Adeline," and "Sunny" all entertainments that really deserved the name of musical comedy.

Fifteen of his songs have reached or passed totals of 2,000,000 copies sold, and his tunes have rivaled those of Victor Herbert as dependable compositions for radio use. He was modest about his ability, declaring often he was fortunate that people liked his songs, for many composers could write better. For more than 40 years the world has been brightened by Jerome Kern's music. That people everywhere loved it was the reward he most cherished.

GOP'S NEW CHAMPION

(Detroit Free Press)

Released from the Navy, Harold E. Stassen is in a position to serve the Nation as eminently in civil life as he did in uniform. His place is fairly clear. As expressed by himself, it is to "strengthen the liberal and progressive development in the Republican Party."

In other words, he is to become the evangel of a revived GOP. And in his role of crusader, for which he is so well suited, it is to be hoped that the Republican Old Guard will listen to him with more enlightened understanding than it did to his predecessor, Wendell Willkie.

Take My Word For It

Frank Colby

SOME WORD CURIOS

There is a class of words known as heteronyms (HET-er-oh-NIMZ) which offer additional evidence of the fact that English is an altogether unphonetic language. Heteronyms are words of the same spelling but with different pronunciations and meanings.

Here are a few familiar heteronyms: "sow," a female hog, and "sow," to scatter seed; "bow," the front part of a boat, and "bow," a weapon for hurling arrows; "resume," to begin again, and "resume" (ray-zoo-MAY), a condensed summary; "evening" (EEV-ning), close of the day, and "evening" (EE-ven-ing), act of making even; "bases" (BAY-sez), the plural of "base," and "bases" (BAY-sez), the plural of "basis"; "lead," a soft metal, and "lead," to guide or conduct.

Some heteronyms can be extremely confusing. For example, "he is a singer," actually has two meanings: (1) He is a man who sings; (2) he is a man who sings. The first singer is pronounced: SING-er.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—So far as one may judge by surface indications, the General Motors strike will go on indefinitely. An irresistible force has met an immovable body.

The longer the deadlock continues in Detroit, the greater becomes the probability that Congress will act. While that action will be aimed primarily at labor, it will hit management as well.

The unions are opposed to any form of compulsory arbitration. So are the employers, as represented in the National Association of Manufacturers and the United States Chamber of Commerce. But compulsory arbitration in some form or other is what they will get if the war in Detroit goes on. While the gun will be aimed at labor, inevitably both sides will be hit.

Behind the deadlock, with its dire consequences for the future, you can begin to see the outline of a political drama taking shape. The hero of that drama—or villain, depending on how you happen to feel about it—is none other than that familiar thespian and time-honored tragedian, John L. Lewis.

—LEWIS STILL SULKING—
Lewis, with his incurable flair for the dramatic, has been sulking ever since the CIO deserted him when he bolted for Wendell Willkie in 1940. Now he sees a chance to come back, and in a big way.

A shrewd politician, he has been convinced for some time that there is nothing more to be gained from the Democrats. For 1948, he has his eye fixed on the Republicans.

That has always been his party. In 1936 he plunked down $500,000 out of the United Mine Workers treasury to help re-elect Franklin Roosevelt. But that was the exception to Lewis' rule of staunch Republicanism through the years.

The moguls in the AFL who have long been negotiating Lewis' return to the fold are also Republicans. Such leaders as William L. Hutchison of the Carpenters' Union have never deviated from the GOP line.

If anti-union legislation is adopted, Lewis will put the blame on the CIO. He will accuse the organization he founded, and then repudiated, of putting labor in a government strait jacket. You can hear now the old orator ringing the changes on that theme.

According to current rumors, Lewis will soon take his union back into the AFL. With his half million miners, Lewis will be the real power no matter who may happen to be president of the federation. In that role, he will be in a strong position to bargain with the GOP.

For political purposes, it will not be hard to make it look as though reactionary southern Democrats were entirely responsible for the "anti-labor" legislation. Representative Eugene Cox of Georgia and others in the house are working hard to make that case. John L. will be able to ignore the fact that the hostile legislation was put over with the help of Republicans who think like Cox.

—FDR OUT OF PICTURE—

Lewis knows full well that the magic of the Roosevelt name and the Roosevelt voice will not be present in 1948. It is hard to see how anything less than that magic can reconcile the split in labor's ranks, unless, of course, the Republicans manage to throw the election away again. If this seems to look a little far into the future, let it be said that eager Republicans are discussing just these possibilities in Washington today. While the strategy is at present in what might be called the cocktail stage, certain of Lewis' admirers within the GOP are taking it with complete seriousness.

Inside the CIO, it is not being lightly dismissed, either. The big fellow with the shaggy eyebrows is trying to box the CIO in at every possible opportunity. He wants the record of the management-labor conference to show that the CIO favors collective bargaining only within a narrowly constructed government framework, whereas he, Lewis, is big enough and bold enough to fight it out with industry on his own.

That it is a risky game, threatening all organized labor with what might well be irretrievable disaster, would not disturb John L. all his life, he has gambled for the highest stakes of wealth and power. This is for him just one more gamble, even though it may prove to be the biggest gamble of his career.

Several times John L. has been down. Each time he's come back. Now he's setting the stage for another return to power.

The second is: SIN-ger.

I once heard an announcer broadcast a traffic safety bulletin in which this phrase occurred: "Don't be a traffic stingy." He pronounced stingy as "STING-ee." It made no sense whatever. By the following day, however, his error had been corrected, and he pronounced it, "STIN-jee." The idea, of course, was that one should be generous (the opposite of stingy), and give other motorists their share of the road. But stingy does have two pronunciations: "STING-ee," stingy or having a sting, and "STIN-jee," mean or avaricious.

Here are two more surprising heteronyms: "routed" and "routing." Routed, when pronounced "routed," means put to disorganized flight; when pronounced "root-ed," it means having been sent by a certain route. Routing, when pronounced "routing," means the act of putting to rout; when pronounced "root-ing" it means selecting a certain route.

There are doubtless hundreds of such pairs, but only one more occurs to me at this moment: "aye" (rhymes with "jay"), a poetic word meaning "always," as, forever and for aye; "aye" (pronounced "eye"), meaning "yes," as in voice voting, and in nautical language—"aye, aye, sir."

As an interesting pastime, see how many heteronyms you can discover.

UNDRESSED FOR WINTER

If you want to have an honest and unbiased view of your town, wait until the leaves of summertime are gone from the trees, and all the buildings are exposed in their unflattered reality.

A meager fall of snow, half exposing, half covering the roof will accentuate the harsh lines once obscured by the foliage of the surrounding trees. Wintertime is a hard period in scenery as well as weather. In wintertime realism becomes dominant and cannot be ignored. The ugly, the commonplace and the truly beautiful are revealed without benefit of trees, flowers and grass.

Undressed for the winter, a town is as exposed to the critical eye as the bathers at a public beach. Its physical imperfections are sometimes shocking. But like the woman who has lived with an ugly husband for many years, even the imperfections become a part of the character of the whole, and lovable through long association.

—MOST FIRE-RESISTANT—
Perhaps you've never noticed the number of roofs covered with fire-resistant materials. The day of the cedar shingle as a roof covering has passed, especially in this northern country where hard firing in the winter time is necessary to keep houses warm. Chimney sparks on wood shingles are the cause of many home fires.

—PUBLIC BUILDINGS—
With the veil of leaves gone from the trees, Escanaba's public buildings show their full face, complete with the wrinkles and cracks of advancing age.

Escanaba's city hall, and the county court house, together with the city police station and the sheriff's office and residence, have little to commend them from the standpoint of architectural beauty. They are characteristic of an earlier period, when the ornate was considered impressive. The more arches, pillars, and heavy stonework that could be incorporated in a building, the more beautiful it would be, folks of that period believed.

The post office building is of later vintage and more on the functional side in its design. Both the postoffice building and the Junior High school have few trees around them. They are the newer of our public buildings. For all its age, the Senior high school building makes no pretense of being other than a school and therefore is forthright in its appearance.

Grade school buildings in Escanaba run the gamut of architectural emotion. There is the simplicity of the Webster annex, now housing county offices, compared with the somewhat florid front presented by the Barr school.

—RESIDENTIAL AREA—
Impressions of Escanaba homes: The honest and unpretentious simplicity of design in the Coleman home on Lake Shore Drive, big and old but evidently built of the pre-jig saw era—the large number of residential lots with one, two and three dwellings on one lot—the lightning rods on the Judd Yelland home, one of the few houses so equipped in the city—but the numerous radio antenna for receiving sets that decorate almost every home, some extremely complicated in appearance—some of the city's biggest old

INTO THE PAST

10 Years Ago—1935

Dr. Nathan J. Frenn has fully recovered from his recent illness and has resumed his office duties in Bark River.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Genesie, Chemical Plant, are the parents of a daughter, born Wednesday at St. Francis hospital.

Definite decision to keep all Delta county WPA projects closed until such time as the workers are prepared to accept the wage and hour provisions established for this district was announced last night after the strike committee of the United Workers, local organization sponsoring the walk-out, reaffirmed its stand against its members accepting employment on WPA projects.

A bridge party complimentary to Miss Celeste Quinn was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Martin Peterson, 517 South Tenth street, with Mrs. John Sullivan, Miss Helen Dupey and Mrs. Peterson in charge of arrangements.

20 Years Ago—1925

Gladstone—One of the most distinctive honors to be won by Gladstone students in colleges and universities has been conferred on Theodore Corbett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Corbett of this city, who has been chosen delegate of the University of Minnesota to the convention of the American Association of Mechanical Engineers in New York City.

Manistique—A. W. Schofield has returned from Detroit where he attended a convention of insurance company agents. He also visited with his daughter, Grace, who is taking a course in nursing at a Cleveland hospital.

Dr. Gordon Gleich of Stephenson spent Thanksgiving day here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gleich, South Ninth street.

Mrs. Grover Lewis and sons Vincent, Francis and Herbert are spending the week end in Iron Mountain.

homes are now undertaking parlors—the large number of modern small homes on the North Side—Escanaba's residential growth is evidently outward, leaving too many vacant lots or ramshackle and unoccupied places closer downtown—the Georgian stability of the Cliff Bridges home on 23rd street, another evidence of the outward growth of the city—the perfect example of the Mansard roof at the Jack Stephens home on Lake Shore Road (the name comes from a Frenchman, Mansart, who originated the design once very popular in Europe)—the peculiar "captain's walk" cupola on the Flora B. Holt home, So. Second avenue. The building is old and the cupola surmounting it is patterned after the lookout places on East Coast homes, where sea captains once strode back and forth watching their ships arrive or clear from the harbor. Adopted as an ornamental feature, the "captain's walk" was built on homes far inland in America.

—LAND OF WINTER—
Although City Forester Bob Clayton may not agree, there is need in Escanaba of more evergreen trees and shrubs. So much of the year is wintertime when other trees lose their leaves, that evergreens are important for ornamentation.

Incidentally, this is the time to decide where evergreens should be planted around your home to give the proper "winter picture," not forgetting, of course, the heavy shade they cast in summer. More evergreens would make our urban landscapes a little less barren for seven months of the year.

G. L.—VETERANS SERVICE

Q. Are applications for release from any branch of the armed forces based on hardship or dependency reasons, affected by the point system?

A. No. They are considered upon the individual merits of the hardship or dependency case.

Q. May a temporary officer (USN or USNR) resign his commission to revert to enlisted status for purpose of release?

A. No. The Navy will not accept resignations for this purpose.

Q. My husband died recently and had named his mother as beneficiary on his national service life insurance. Would I be eligible for benefits from the insurance if the mother dies?

A. If the insured designated a beneficiary for his government insurance, then you are not eligible for it, unless the designated beneficiary should die before the payments have been completed and there is no other beneficiary designated.

OF GENERAL INTEREST

Q. Is air ever free from dust?

A. No. It settles on Antarctic snows and Greenland ice. Near the earth this dust is chiefly wind blown soil; high above it is star dust, from the millions of meteors that enter the earth's atmosphere every day, or the volcanic ash blown skyward by eruptions. Any dustfall is composed of this local air content mixed with foreign material. A dust storm is really a sort of atmospheric flood, an intensive phase of something that goes on all the time.

Q. Why didn't the U. S. battleship Pennsylvania participate in the Navy Day celebration when it was located at Seattle, Washington?

A. The Navy Department says that it was because the battleship had sustained some damage in the closing phases of the Pacific war.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Q. A group of friends were in last night for a friendly game of Poker. I held a Royal Flush in Hearts and my neighbor held an identical hand in Spades. Can you tell us whether the suits have any rank in Poker?

A. According to the Official Rules, if two hands are tied in poker value, they divide the pot. Since a poker hand consists of five cards, the odd cards sometimes determine the winner, but in cases of Royal Flushes, the pot is split because suits have no rank in Poker when the hands are identical.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—Just a few minutes before word came of the paralyzing General Motors strike in Detroit, President Truman was asked at his news conference whether he was hopeful about the labor-management conference which he had called in order to bring a new era of industrial peace. Truman baffled listeners by replying that he was still optimistic.

On the way out of his office, newsmen thought they found the answer to Truman's puzzling cheerfulness. Hanging on the wall was a newly framed parchment making Truman a life member of the "optimists international."

—MEDICAL RAID—
There are politics in almost everything these days—even health. And behind the President's important progressive message to congress on national health appear to be some back-stage politics.

The Hill-Burton bill now before the senate was eased out of committee, some senators suspect, in order to get in ahead of the Truman health program.

Most essential part of the Hill-Burton bill is that it siphons off $375,000,000 from the federal treasury and puts it largely under control of the so-called "hospital crowd," namely the American Hospital Association, the Protestant Hospital Association, the Catholic Hospital Association, with their ally the American Medical Association which did most of the behind-the-scenes lobbying.

Interesting fact was that the Hill-Burton bill lay quietly in the senate committee on education and labor until Sept. 6, when President Truman announced that later he was going to send a special message to congress recommending a national health program.

Until then, the authors of the bill, Senator Lister Hill of Alabama and Senator Harold Burton of Ohio, (now supreme court justice) had done little or nothing to push it.

—LISTER HILL WAKES UP—

But suddenly, after Truman's Sept. 6 announcement, the medical lobby got busy. Putting the heat under Democratic Senator Hill, they arranged for him to cooperate with arch-Republican Senator Taft of Ohio, and jacked the bill out of committee over the protests of committee chairman Jim Murray of Montana.

Senator Murray, who always has favored a national health program, was put in an embarrassing spot. He favored several portions of the Hill-Burton bill, among them a survey of the country to see where hospitals are needed, and the general idea of a federal subsidy of $75,000,000 a year to states, communities and non-profit corporations to build hospitals where they are needed.

But here is the chief joker in the bill. This federal money is to be allocated not by the federal government which raises it, but by an outside council on which the American Medical Association lobby and the so-called "American Hospital Crowd" would appoint a majority of the members.

In other words, the federal government, after putting up the money, would have the privilege of sitting by and watching private institutions dole it out without a y authority over how the money was used.

This is the same scandalous proposal which has raised such a furor in two other recent cases: (1) The atomic bomb bill, which places control of the bomb's secrets in a committee of $1-a-year businessmen not answerable to the federal government; and (2) The federal aid bill for scientific research. It is also the same principle at stake in the U. S. Employment Service, whereby the privilege of spending it—with all the lush political patronage that goes along. Building up a local political machine at the expense of the federal government is the fashion these days in congress.

Interesting thing to watch will be whether the senate now rushes the private hospital bill through, or waits to consider Truman's comprehensive health program for the benefit of the entire country.

—SENATOR OVERTON'S OFFICE HELPS—

Senator John Overton of Louisiana is a mighty liberal man when it comes to paying his staff, especially when they happen to be relatives. For some years both his daughters, Katherine and Ruth, were on the congressional payroll. Katherine got married and no longer sips at the public trough, but Ruth Overton still receives more than $2,200 a year.

Senator Overton is also pretty liberal about time off for his help, especially when they are kinfolk. Recently Ruth had an enjoyable vacation in Cuba. Not so, however, for a tired mother of a heroic serviceman, Mrs. Julia Kearns, who works in the Senator's office.

Mrs. Kearns' son has just returned from two years overseas with the Marines, where he was in many major battles including Iwo Jima. However, when it came time for Mrs. Kearns to go back to Louisiana to visit the boy she had worried so much about, the Senator limited her to exactly one week, though the railroad trip alone takes four days.

It's a grand and glorious habit—sticking our necks out by asking little Willie, "What do you want for Christmas?"

Dresses are to be longer next year, says a report. A tough break for the men, no matter how they look at it.

Don't overlook early mailing of overseas greetings to boys who will be over-anxious to get them!

When a couple is content to sit in the same chair, it doesn't leave much room for argument.

One objection to most old flames is that they won't burn your letters.

TOWNSHIPS GET $11,156 TAXES tate Makes Settlement On 111,565 Acres Of Public Lands

Checks totaling $11,156.55 have been mailed to treasurers in Delta county's 14 townships in the annual distribution of state money to townships in which state-owned lands are located. The state pays the townships 10 cents per acre in the so-called "swamp tax settlement".

The checks have been mailed to the townships from the office of County Treasurer Robert C. Ryall. The payments are based on schedule and figures on acreage applied by the state.

According to the report there is approximately 111,565 acres of state-owned land in Delta county. Baldwin has the largest acreage of state land, Maple Ridge is second, and Masonville township third.

The payments made to the townships is for the year 1944, and the settlement is usually made each spring. The necessary information on which to make the distribution was not received at the county treasurer's office until recently.

The amount received by the townships, together with the approximate acreage of state-owned lands, are as follows:

Fire Chief Urges Caution In Use Of Yule Decorations

With Christmas decorating under way in retail shops here Fire Chief Arvid Johnson asks the co-operation of merchants in avoiding the use of inflammable materials in their Yuletide store and window displays.

The chief warns against the use of tissue paper around electric bulbs and the excessive use of cotton batting or other highly inflammable material where there is the slightest danger of fire.

Fireproof material should be used exclusively where possible, he added.

A little thought and care in the preparation of decorative material in both shops and homes may save not only thousands of dollars but human lives as well, Fire Chief Johnson warns.

Today's Recipes

In answer to a request, the following venison recipes are printed:

Venison Mince Meat
Three pounds cooked venison
Five pounds apples, chopped
Four pounds raisins
Two pounds currants
One pound beef suet
One pound brown sugar
Six pounds granulated sugar
Juice of three lemons
One cup sorghum molasses
Two quarts cider or fruit juice
One tablespoon salt
Juice from pickled pears or peaches may be added; this gives a nice flavor.
Boil together and seal while hot.
You will note that no spices are used in this recipe.

Venison Mince Meat
To one pint of ground venison, boiled, use three pints ground apples. Add one teaspoon each of cinnamon, nutmeg, allspice, cloves and salt. Sweeten with sugar or syrup to taste. Add vinegar to give mixture a tart taste. Cider may be used instead of vinegar. Add enough water to make mince meat juicy, and add raisins and currants to suit taste.

Easing The Pinch
Of Fall Footwear

Ever hear of anybody who put perfume on the feet?
Diogenes, the Greek philosopher famed for his wisdom, did. He claimed that vapors rising from the feet perfumed the whole body—that those rising from the head—where we're all most apt to dab ourselves with scent—went up into the air and were wasted.
That's a tip, which you can use for whatever it's worth. A girl who perfumed her feet would be obliged to notice whether they were as nicely kept as they should be to justify such a ritual. That of course, would mean not only better looking, but more comfortable feet.

Now that you're going back into dressy shoes, which will fit more snugly than the thonged sandals of summer, any crumb of comfort tossed to your feet will help to ease the pinch, and induce the under-dogs to give you more cheerful support.

eric Baraga as its first Bishop, it became a Diocese in 1857. Since then it has been served by seven Bishops who have contributed much to the spiritual as well as the material development of the territory.

Bishop Francis J. Magner was appointed to the See on December 23, 1940; was consecrated in Chicago on February 24, 1941 and installed at Marquette on March 20, 1941. In taking the present step he is fulfilling a recognized need for an instrument of instruction and contact with his flock.

The managing editor will have been ordained five years this coming June. He began his studies in September of 1929 at St. Lawrence College Mount Calvary, Wis. Graduating in 1935 he was sent to the St. Louis Preparatory Seminary for his two-year Philosophical Course. Bishop Casimir Plagens sent him to the North American College, Rome, Italy, in 1937. Remaining there until June of 1940, he returned to complete his Theological Course at the Catholic University of America and was ordained in St. Peter's Cathedral, Marquette, on June 7, 1941, by Bishop Magner.

His first assignment was as assistant to the Rev. Thomas P. Dunleavy, pastor of St. Mary's, Gastra, and St. Cecilia's Caspian. When Father Dunleavy enlisted as a Naval Chaplain in June of 1942, the Rev. Charles Daniel became pastor of the parish. From June 20, 1941, to January 4, 1945, Father Spelgatti continued in that assignment. Transferred to St. Michael's at Marquette he has been until the recent appointment assistant to the Rt. Rev. Joseph L. Zryd, D. D., J. C. D.

Official headquarters for the paper will be established in Marquette. Printing of the newspaper will be done in Huntington, Ind., by the Our Sunday Visitor, Inc. The name selected for the diocesan newspaper is "The Northern Michigan Edition of Our Sunday Visitor." The paper will be composed of three sections.

Suppose YOU hadn't been home for 3 years!

CHANCES ARE, the first thing you'd do when you got near a telephone would be to call the folks back home.

That's happening thousands of times every day now and our operators are going all-out to get those calls through as quickly as possible.

But sometimes some of those calls are delayed because we still lack circuits and the existing lines are crowded. The Bell System is building two million miles of new circuits, but this is a tremendous job that will take time.

Meanwhile, you can help by not making any but necessary Long Distance calls in the evening. That's when many service men and women want to use the wires.

AUTHORIZES 3 SKATING RINKS

Council Appropriates
$1,500 For Purpose
Monday Night

Authorization for the expenditure of $1,500 for building and maintaining three skating rinks in the city was voted by the city council at its regular session Monday evening.

This action was taken at the request of the city recreational board which has been studying the methods employed by the City of Escanaba where several skating rinks are maintained each season.

The plan calls for the construction and maintenance of three rinks in the city—one at the high school stadium; one at the site of the old Hiawatha hotel, near the Soo Line depot and the other on Park avenue. Two men will be employed at each rink who will be hired with the assurance of a 50-day season of employment.

The rinks, it is expected, will be ready for use about Christmas time.

The matter of radio interference was discussed in considerable length and Ray McCarney, who has been employed by the city to trace the source of the hums, howls and grinds that have made evening radio reception the cause for much complaint, gave a report of his findings. McCarney stated that while a few motors in household appliances had caused some offense, the cause of most of the trouble apparently lay in a certain city lighting circuit. Trees, brushing against power lines also seemed to be the cause of some of the trouble. The radio interference and complaint voiced by the city manager in current had caused considerable inconvenience to householders, prompted the council to pass a resolution requesting the head of the power company to confer with the council relative to the matter.

City Manager Charles D. Manson advised the council that action would have to be taken in the very near future on a number of items of city equipment and asked the council to consider the need of a new 500-gallon pump truck to take over the major duties of the present pump truck which is now out-moded and not able to perform reliably; a police car to replace the one now in use which has acquired a mileage of more than 90,000 miles; and the installation of electric rust preventive in the city water tower.

The auditor's report for the fiscal year was presented to the city council for inspection.

MUST ASSIST RFD CARRIER

Patrons Must Keep Mail Box Approaches Cleared

Patrons on RFD Route 1, Gladstone, are advised by Postmaster B. R. Micks that snow or other obstructions must be kept away from the mail boxes if they desire service.

The postmaster reminds patrons that under postal regulations they are required to keep clear the approaches to their mail boxes by promptly removing obstructions, including snow, which render it difficult or impossible for the carrier to deliver mail to the boxes without alighting from his vehicle.

Unless approaches are cleared within a reasonable time after heavy snowfalls, the delivery by carrier may be withheld temporarily until the approaches have been cleared, patrons are informed.

In most cases the regulation has been complied with but there are a number of instances where the rural mail carrier has not been able to reach the boxes.

STOLL HEADS AIRPORT BOARD

City - County Committee
To Seek Improved Air
Facilities Here

Charles W. Stoll, Escanaba, was named chairman of the city-county airport board at an organizational meeting Monday evening at the Chamber of Commerce offices. Atty. Denis McGinn was elected vice-chairman and Ben Sparks secretary-treasurer.

Representing the city on the committee are Ben Sparks, Gerald Cleary, Charles Priester and Atty. McGinn who were appointed by Mayor Sam R. Wickman at the request of the city council. County representatives include Charles W. Stoll, Harold W. Gasman and Mayor Wickman.

The committee took no other definite action at the meeting but discussed plans for securing a suitable city-county airport site.

Recognizing the need of vast improvement of airport facilities in the community, Delta county supervisors and the Escanaba city council took the first steps toward that end recently by authorizing the formation of the city-county committee which will study the needs and the means of securing improvement and extension of the present outmoded facilities.

With The Deer Hunters

Charles and Emile Gafner, hunting at their camp on Drummond Island, each shot a buck this season.

A party of six Escanaba hunters and one Chicagoan found good hunting at the Thompson and Ray camps west of Hendricks in the past ten days. All but one in the party filled his license and in

Washington Pack Holds Meeting

The monthly meeting of Cub Pack 416 of the Washington School, was held at its usual meeting place last Monday evening, consisting of Pack Leaders, parents and Cubs.

The meeting was under the direction of Amir Pederson, Cubmaster. The meeting opened with the Cub promise and law, led by Cub Donald Johnson. The introduction of each Cub and his respective rank was given. Following, games were played by the Cubs. Acknowledgment of the fine work that has been done in the handicraft field by the Cubs under the direction of Cubmasters Johnson and Pederson was given.

Following the meeting of the Cubs, a short session was held by the leaders present, including Den Mothers, Mesdames Sheedlo, Van Effen, Olson, and Pederson. All Dens in operation were represented by Den Mothers. Problems of preceding meetings were presented and attempts made to solve them.

Pack 416 numbers 18 registered Cubs, with several awaiting enrollment.

Participation of parents is to be encouraged in order that the Pack may operate successfully. At each monthly meeting of the pack, parents are requested to attend and see the pack in operation. Mrs. Milton Monson represented one of the Dens as a parent.

Electric lights counteract the effect of damp salt air on pianos. Pianos at the seashore have lights burning around them for this reason.

In addition to the almost 1,000 pounds of deer taken Jim Ray will collect for pelt of the red fox he shot. The successful deerlayers included Pete Thompson, Albert "Lou" Villemur, Bert and Jim Ray, Ralph Olsen and Carl Green. Everett Hedberg was the Chicagoan who missed but he says he'll be back next year now that he has learned all the tricks from the veterans.

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT

And Stop Dosing Your Stomach
With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when it gets blocked it fails to digest properly.

What you want for real relief is not soda or an alkalizer—but something to "unblock" your intestinal tract. Something to clean it out effectively—help Nature get back on her feet.

Get Carter's Pills right now. Take them as directed. They gently and effectively "unblock" your digestive tract. This permits your food to move along normally. Nature's own digestive juices can then reach it. You get genuine relief that makes you feel really good again.

Get Carter's Pills at any drugstore—25c. "Unblock" your intestinal tract for real relief from indigestion.
